

Historic Siskiyou County Office of Education Information and Photos

Loaned by the Siskiyou County Public Library.

Siskiyou County Office of Education School History Collection.

Paul Fischer (Audio Visual Director), Eddie Roberts (superintendent).

County Superintendent of Schools (either Kate E. Horn, or W. L. Kleaver) and County Librarian (Thelma Brackett) on the way to Somes Bar from Forks of Salmon to visit schools. During winter season, books were carried by pack mule beyond the Salmon Mountain up the Cecilville Road to Black Bear Mine, Cecilville School and Ball Horne Deposit (note from June 4, 1929 on photo back). Date October 1921. Loaned by the Siskiyou County Public Library.

The "gentleman from the jail" helps move out the books to get ready for a picture. These comprise the general reading prepared during the summer to take to schools. Date: September 1922. Loaned by the Siskiyou County Public Library.

General reading to schools via Siskiyou County Free Library Truck. Date: September 1925. Photocopy of photo housed at the California State Library, California Section. Loaned by the Siskiyou County Public Library.

Transporting general reading to schools. Date: September 1923. Photocopy of photo housed at the California State Library, California Section. Loaned by the Siskiyou County Public Library.