

Fall Creek School District

The Fall Creek District was established in 1911 from parts of the Oak Grove, Cleveland, and Lowood School Districts. The first school house was located 18 miles from Hornbrook on the Copco (Irongate) Road. This building is presently being used for a community center.

In 1965 a new school house was erected one mile below the old one – 17 miles from Hornbrook. School is being held there at present time.

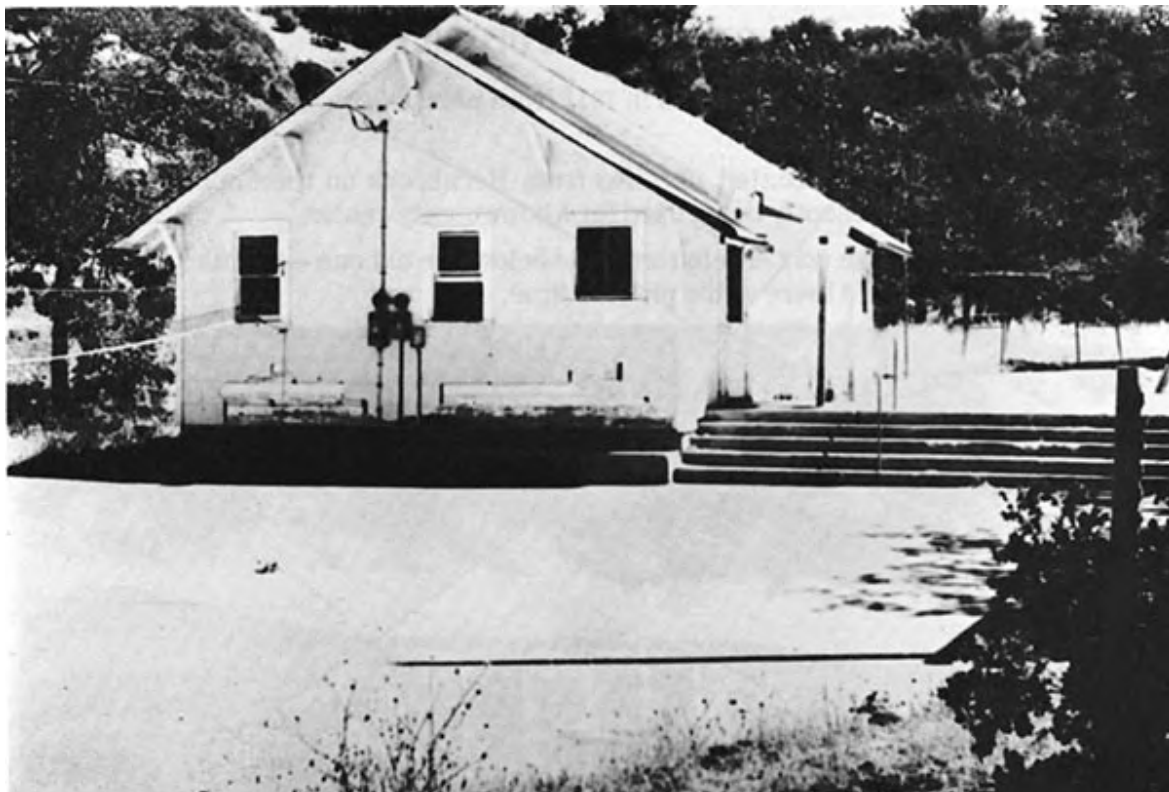

Reference in board of Supervisors minutes:

April 4, 1905 – Petition to form district rejected (7-86)

Established: January 2, 1911 – From parts of Oak Grove, Lowood, and Cleveland School Districts (8-370)

July 26, 1955- Suspended (24-16)

Note: Other school records show that the school was reopened and operating in September 1955. No notice of reopening in minutes of Board of Supervisors.
