

Franklin School District

The district was formed in 1859. The school house was located 6.5 miles from Fort Jones on the East Side Scott Valley road. It served the farm children from the middle (island section) of Scott Valley.

Our earliest records show that in 1899 Mr. Peter Luttrell was the teacher. There were 13 pupils and the school term was for seven months. The last school teacher (1921-22) was Mrs. Florence Grant.

The district was lapsed in 1923 and divided between the McConaughy and Fort Jones Districts. The school house has now been made part of a modern residence.
