

Rough and Ready

(Also see Etna and Center Districts)

The original town of Etna Mills was located at the foot of Salmon Mountain and is now called Old Etna. The present town of Etna was called Rough and Ready. The Rough and Ready School District was established in 1859. No further reference to this school district can be found.

In 1865 a school district was established in Etna, called the Center School District. In 1873, this name was changed to Etna School District.

Reference in board of Supervisors minutes:

Established: August 2, 1859 – Boundary change (2-132)

No further reference to the rough and ready School District is given.

No photos available.